Embassy Victim Buried in Denver

DENVER, COLO. (AP)—Barbara Robbins, 21-year-old victim of the bombing of the U.S. embassy in Saigon, was buried yesterday.

Her coffin was draped in an American Flag as te Rev. Walter F. Geihlsler conducted services for her in the University Hills Lutheran Church.

Miss Robbins, an embassy secretary, was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Buford M. Robbins of Denver. She died Tuesday in the bombing in the South Viet Nam capital.

Mr. Geihlsler read the congregation telegrams of condolence to the parents from President Johnson and Secretary of State Dean Rusk.
